Submission: Objection

Comments: I have already sent in one objection but just to add to it, this housing estate has always been well kept and maintained it's market value and has always been a well sought after area. This change of dwelling at number 50 will have a negative impact likely reduction of house prices and the desire to buy on here will decrease dramatically, none of this is fair to the home owners who have purchased and live on this residential estate now and majority have for many years.
