Comments: Dear sir/madam, Jackson's Nurseries is a gem of a local business. They have a much wider range of plants than anywhere else locally and the prices are always reasonable, I think because most of them are grown on site. They've given job opportunities and training for many ex. students of Endon High School, where I was Head Boy, over the years. The lads I know who worked there have enjoyed it and taken a lot from the experience. The grub at the tea room is always delicious and they are friendly and accommodating of our 2 young children when we regularly visit. It would be a shame to see the business die out. Many thanks,
Alexander Wright
