CHEDDLETON COMMUNITY CENTRE , HOLLOW LANE , CHEDDLETON .

HERITAGE STATEMENT .

The heritage asset relevant to this building is the Cheddleton Conservation Area which was designated as a Conservation Area in 1970 .

The historic village of Cheddleton is located on Hollow Lane and above the River Churnet which lies within the Caldon Canal Conservation Area . The general setting of the village remains rural . Properties on Hollow Lane retain many original features and many are built in stone with small front gardens and low stone boundary walls . Window and door openings are uniform and original . Within the immediate Conservation area is the historic St Edwards Church and adjacent is the Black Lion public House .

Cheddleton Community Centre is a modern brick built building comprising a tall gable ended tiled section to the left and a single storey flat roofed main section adjacent . An entrance porch is present on the front elevation and a small extension was added in 2002 . Large glazed windows are a feature to the front and rear elevations . The front boundary with Hollow Lane comprises a low brick wall and metal railings .

The Community Centre contains no Heritage Assets or artefacts and nothing that will be adversely affected or impacted by the presence of solar panels on the flat roof section .
