Submission: Objection

Comments: I would like to object to this application. Already within the area of killer hill there are established footpaths for people to enjoy. There are indeed within the leek area lots of beautiful areas of countryside already dedicated to people's enjoyment rather than farming. le brough Park, ladderidge countryside Park and tittesworth to name a few.

I don't understand why land purchased by a farmer for their business - not pleasure has to be given over to people to walk on when there is as mentioned many other alternative areas. So for the reason that i beleive people are just feeling entitled to walk where they want regardless of someone else's livelihood i strongly object..
