Comments: Jacksons Nursery has been a part of Bagnall for over 60 years. Luke will be the third generation to take on this local family business.

Roger and I grew up at Lawn Farm in an extraordinary environment as Dad was a specialist Rose grower, surrounded by fields of 30,000 flowering roses.

I believe it is important that as Roger and Ruth take a step back that Luke, who was brought up on the nursery, is enabled to move back to his home to secure the future of the nursery.

Given the demands of raising young plants Luke will need to be as close at hand as possible and surely it is best that someone who has been a part of creating this landscape should be there to safeguard its future and live within that landscape.
