Comments: This is not needed, never has been needed, it is farm land, leave it alone.

No way should this land be taken from the farmer, the land is used for farming it has never belonged to the council, it is not and never has been anything but farming land.

What gives SMDC the right to take any land they don't own.

If SMDC wanted this land they should have purchased it like the farmer did.

Just let him farm HIS land and leave him alone.

If this land is so important to SMDC give the farmer a good price for it, twice what it's worth as you are destroying his farm.
