Comments: Although not an Alton resident I spend a lot of time in the village visiting family and friends who are residents. I feel there are already too many Alton premises that are holiday lets which prevents local people, especially the younger generation staying in the area. Local people are being forced to live / take their income out of the village.

The proximity of the building which is directly onto a busy road is also a danger to those who are not familiar with local road systems and times of heavy traffic (Alton Towers traffic).
