In response to your document regarding fire access. Each apartment will have one exit that doesn't go through your yard. This proposal is made on advice to provide a secondary means of escape. I understand your concerns and until the fire officer has seen the plans I can't comment. He will provide the authority on fire regulations. I will suggest that this exit is not practical. I agree as we discussed.

In response to the windows. To confirm there is no new window openings into your property. These just represent original opening that now cease to exist.

Regards

Lynsay
