Comments: Please stop proposing these things on the beautiful countryside. There are so many other sites to use - roofs, car parks, stadiums etc. Natural habitats and the well being of people is more important than big companies ruining the landscape. The Staffordshire Moorlands will no longer be the moorlands if all of these solar farms and battery storage facilities are allowed to go ahead. It is all causing undue stress. There are enough horrible places in Stoke without ruining the actual nice places that we have!
