Dear Mr F Williamson

TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT 1990
PLANNING APPLICATION VALIDATION

Amount Received: £70

Receipt Number: 8011

DEVELOPMENT Replacement agricultural shed
PROPOSED:
LOCATION: Endon Mill Gratton Lane Gratton

I refer to your Planning Application received on 20th April 2009. I confirm the application is valid and has been placed on the planning register. As part of its requirement to publicise the proposal, a notice may be placed on the site. The application can also be viewed at www.staffsmoorlands.gov.uk

The period during which the Council should determine your application ends on 6th July 2009. If a decision cannot be made by that date I will write to you explaining why and giving you a revised date. The Planning Officer responsible for your application is Mr S Williams. Should the case officer feel that, following examination of the application and a site visit further information is required or because of insufficient information, the application is invalid, I will write to you again explaining what you need to do to help me to determine the application.

Please note that Building Regulations may also be required for this proposal. In the first instance please contact 01538 483550 for further advice.

Yours sincerely
