Submission: Objection

Comments: I object to the demolition of The Cross public house, as the original building dates back to the 1800s.

It represents the now lost hamlet of Hofton's Croft, and as such should be retained for the purpose of listing, preservation and sympathetic restoration.

This would represent a far more aesthetic contribution to this lovely conservation area than yet more caravans, and as such could be used for the purpose of Hilda's cottages, residences or a public house / restaurant.

Yours sincerely,
