Submission: Objection

Comments: I strongly object to the short-sighted and unnecessary destruction of the Cross Inn building(s) (formerly Jean Pierre' s French Restaurant and earlier still Red Lion Public House), that has been an asset of the local community for centuries.

I object to the probable serious impacts to the physical and mental health of local residents.

I object to further local visual and environmental impact.

I object to the unnecessary demolition of this pre 1750 public House building/ heritage asset that if destroyed will be lost to future generations long after the caravan site in 10, 20, 500, 100, 200 years time.

Surely, if no longer a public house or restaurant and when the current government is asking for new housing, it is total madness to pull down this existing historic stone building that has endured for centuries, for temporary caravans...?
