Hi Planning Support

Could you please inform me about the progress for adding my objection and comments regarding the planning application? I've checked the website and it hasn't been updated

Many thanks & kindest regards
Jacob Barrow

“Thank you for your observations on this application which have been forwarded to the case officer and will be added to the planning application file within 2 working days. Unfortunately we cannot respond to individual representations. However, they will be reported to the Committee/ in the delegated report & Council will take them into account before making a decision. Please note that once a decision has been made it will be made available on the web.

I would remind you that under the ‘Local Government (Access to Information) Act 1985’ the comments you have made are now available for inspection by any interested persons. Should an appeal arise from the application, copies will be sent to the appellant and the Planning Inspectorate.
