Submission: Objection

Comments: This is a residential property and therefore would require a change of use and should not be used as a business as it can lead to the de-valuing of properties around this house. This change of use will affect neighbouring properties as as there is an adjoining driving way which all neighbours have a right to a private family life. This change of use will increase traffic and create parking problems in Meigh Road. The park that this backs onto is already considered an area of anti-social behaviour. Changing the use of this house will affect the residents of a street that is made up of mainly bungalows in the close proximity to this house, which older people live in which may be affected by this change of use.
