Comments: I have lived on my property for nearly 15 years and share my north and eastern boundary with Gorsty Hill Farm. The farmhouse and barns are visible from my property.

I have known the applicant for almost all that time. Prior to inheriting the property and to date, has always farmed cattle, processed and sold wood from the property.

Since inheriting the property all the work that he has done replacing the dilapidated barns has improved the visual aspect and is in keeping with the agricultural nature of the area. In fact the visual aspect has improved as he is now able to store his processing activities and wood crates indoors. There is no noise or traffic nuisance created by his activities.

I support this planning application.
