Comments: Whilst I will be sad to see the loss of my favoured parking bays, this use for additional retail provision and assets is in general a positive consideration.

However, whilst the above and the following are not material planning considerations, I wanted to note that this proposal risks undermining long-standing, traditional family business provision in the town, which may adversely impact on the retail mix on the high street (I'm specifically thinking of Snelson's, which has served Biddulph for many years and is currently a much-loved fixture of the community and already provides much of the retail provision of Timpsons.
