I am in full support with Ben Hurts original decision in rejecting the planning request.

Unfortunately the resubmitted application is requesting an inappropriate development of the Green Belt and open countryside.

The proposed site would be going against the boundaries of what it was originally purchased for.

Concerningly the proposals outlined in the new application for the site have already been done without permission.

I have concerns on the ecological impacts of the site.

The lane is a beauty spot where many ramblers visit daily to enjoy the wildlife, also horses are rode frequently on the lane. To agree to such a site would be detrimental to the local community and extremely dangerous to allow a Travellers site, increasing traffic on the lane with vans and large vehicles.

I therefore respectfully disagree with the proposal,
