Comments: Having read the comments on this application, and looking at what other applications for building and changing use of property to air b&b, I feel the comments are very racially motivated due to the wording of the application Traveler Gypsy site,

The land before Mr Quinn owned it was in an appalling condition you couldn't have grazed a goat on it, you couldn't have walked around the perimeter of the Davenport land and had Mr Davenport not been taken ill it would be worse now than ever before, but you all seemed to put up with Mr Davenports untidiness constant noise of tractors chainsaws and log splitting equipment, his burning of tyres and unsavoury visitors, the yard which was a dumping ground for all manner of things, it was cleared by myself and my son then placed on the market, Mr Quinn brought the land and has turned it into a clean and very tidy place with a fenced perimeter which has to be much better for the neighbors as Mr Davenport had no such fence and all manner of things could have blown or fallen onto Mr Scrags property, now there is no way for that to happen, once again I do feel the comments are racially motivated due to the wording on the application, 80% of people on the lane used Mr Davenports business in some capacity that's paying for something, or hiring him and his lorry for haulage whether it was cheque or cash it was always documented, so to say it wasn't a business isn't really your truth, the land now is a credit to Mr Quinn and his family
