Comments: My son and daughter-in-law live in Stoke-on-Trent and have been looking to move here, it's where my daughter-in-law grew up, and I know for a fact that her family have contributed to this town for generations. In fact, they were instrumental in making things like the current Rakeway estate and parts of Cheadle Primary & High School possible.

I can't help but wonder what those who helped build this community would think if the future of the town was being blocked like this. Cheadle should be allowed to grow, not be stuck in the past. And from what I've seen, most of the houses nearby are side-on to the land anyway, so I don't see how views are really being spoiled.
