Comments: An excellent and well thought-out project which will vastly improve the ability of the Foxlowe to offer arts and entertainment to the people of Leek and beyond. The scheme will have little impact on the view of the building from the town centre side and, through use of modern sound-proofing, offers the opportunity to address any issues of noise disturbance to surrounding properties. Although I no longer live in Leek I am a long-term supporter of the Foxlowe and wish to see it prosper and expand. This project will allow it to do that while, at the same time, help the local economy to grow.
