Submission: Objection

Comments: I object to this planning application. Like many others in the area, there are much better locations than this area. What happened to Bagnall? There are plenty of fields round there that would be more suited that don't have petrol stations right next door and also residential properties. Petrol and electricity really mix, don't they? It doesn't take a genius to figure that out. Just depends on what figure you put on people's lives. Well, there isn't one.

Although I have already complained about this specific planning application, I wonder why my previous comments have vanished. Sounds dodgy to me. I have already complained to the local MP regarding this ridiculous proposal. Which clever person came up with this idea right next to a petrol station? All about the money, and this company was from the Middle East submitting this application. Say no more. There is a lot of wildlife within this area and also residential properties alongside this proposed area and also a school footsteps away.

This application needs to be refused and not even considered.
