Comments: I wish to add several more comments.

I would like to point out that this property ceased to be a post office in 2018 when the postmaster left. I understand that a contract to provide postal service is between the postmaster and the Post Office.

417 is vacant both for residential and commercial uses , despite a few small windows being left permanently open in all weathers and a notice in the shop window saying "Opening soon ", which appeared approximately 18 months ago. An old mattress can still be seen propped up inside against this window and there are weeds growing in front of the shop doorway. An old fridge lies on the parking space at the front of the property.

417 is currently vacant both for residence and commercial use.
