Submission: Objection

Comments: I have lived at 386, Ash Bank Road, Werrington, since 2005. With my late wife we enjoyed friendly and amicable relations with Mr and Mrs Meakin and their children. However, I have only recently heard (through Mrs Meakin via telephone that the people purchasing 388, Ash Bank intend to use it as a 'children's home' for 2 children. My objection is that I have no details of the likely children, their ages. Any history of violence or intimidation. Have they been excluded from schools. Where are the parents. How often will they be moved for fresh children? How qualified are the carers?

I really do need to know more before I can agree to this application.

Kind regards, Spencer Hodgetts
