Comments: Not clear on this application if this is for personal use or as part of a holiday let business. Does the applicant require change of use permission if it is the latter?

If for personal use I have no objection to this proposal providing the outside access door is moved to opposite side of the extension, or accessed internally. The plans show an external door onto the narrow path between the houses. With no.3 property sitting forward of no.2, access on this side of the extension affects the privacy of No.2 (our property).
