Comments: I have no problem as such with regards to a balcony as I know other properties around me have them. My BIG issue is that this particular balcony will be substantially longer as there is an extension already at this property so it will be considerably much closer to my house than all the other balconies in the row as the void at the side of our property has been filled with an extension. So therefore overlooking our lounge as its just a meter away from our window. Also three meters our from number 18 is considerably further out than ANY of the other balconies. Too far out as will definitely encroach our privacy and overlooking our lounge. They will be able to stand on their balcony and turn around and look straight into our lounge, if that isn't an invasion of our privacy then i dont know what is? Il strongly oppose this as its far too long and far too far out at 3 meters in depth.
