Submission: Objection

Comments: We strongly object to the change of use. We own the adjacent land to the property and the farm opposite. My brother Steven redfern is extremely vulnerable. He has never left the village following a serious illness, stayed on the farm looking after our parents. He has support from myself and his other, who doesn't live in the village. Steven has been targeted on numerous occasions leading to upset and local police involved. This We find very worrying and a stressful time on the uncertainty what will develop. And potentially how this could effect house prices in this area ? Concerns are valid but more to the safety of my family.
