

Tree protection area
Keep Out
This is a tree protection area (TPA) established to protect the tree from damage during construction activities. No vehicles, machinery, or materials are allowed within the TPA. Breaching the TPA is a criminal offence under the Environmental Protection Act 1990.

Protective fencing
This fence must be maintained in accordance with the approved plans and drawings for this development.