Comments: I have lived in Biddulph Moor for 30 years. I enjoy the Countryside and the Wildlife. If more houses are built on the Moor then it will turn into a small town like Biddulph and lose the Countryside appeal. Not only that there is the Wildlife to consider. The proposed site has field and hedges that house many wild creatures and birds. If this land was built on then that would be another area that is lost for the continued existence of our treasured Wildlife.
