

|                |                   |
|----------------|-------------------|
| Client         | Michael Maryon    |
| Project        | Hillcrest         |
| Date           | 09.04.26          |
| Surveyor       | Daniel Phillipson |
| Project Number | 46469044          |

| Ref No. | Common Name(Scientific Name)             | Age Class    | Height | StemDiameter | CrownSpread                              | CrownClearance | Condition  |               | RPA   |        | Comments                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | Remaining LifeExpectancy | Category / Sub-category |
|---------|----------------------------------------------|--------------|--------|------------------|----------------------------------------------|--------------------|------------|---------------|-------|--------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------|-----------------------------|
|         |                                              |              |        |                  |                                              |                    | Structural | Physiological | Area  | Radius |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                              |                             |
| 1H      | Cherry LaurelPrunus laurocerasus         | Semi-mature  | 2.5m   | 80mm             | N - 1mE - 1mS - 1mW - 1m         | N - 0m             | Good       | Good          | 3m²   | 0.9m   | Regularly maintained cherry laurel hedge. Multi stemmed, DBH calculated as a whole.                                                                                                                                                                                     | 40+ Years                    | C1                          |
| 2T      | Common OakQuercus robur                  | Early-mature | 13m    | 690mm            | N - 4mE - 4mS - 4mW - 4m         | N - 1.5m           | Good       | Good          | 222m² | 8.4m   | Previously pollarded and crown lifted. Pruning cuts have occluded and producing epicormic shoots. Oak gall observed on one shoot. Underground water pipe 0.5m to the south of the tree. Prominent buttress roots. Fencing wire that the tree has grown around the tree. | 20+ Years                    | B1                          |
| 3T      | Lawson's CypressChamaecyparis lawsoniana | Semi-mature  | 13m    | 200mm;180mm  | N - 1.5mE - 1.5mS - 1.5mW - 1.5m | N - 2m             | Good       | Good          | 34m²  | 3.3m   | Codominant from the base, the tree is outside of the site and was assessed from within. Previously crown lifted.                                                                                                                                                        | 20+ Years                    | C1                          |
| 4H      | Mixed group                                  | Semi-mature  | 2m     | 80mm             | N - 0.5mE - 0.5mS - 0.5mW - 0.5m | N - 2m             | Good       | Good          | 3m²   | 0.9m   | Regularly maintained laurel and holly hedge. Growing on a southernly grade change of approximately 1m. Border hedge some of the stems are in the site whereas others are outside. Multi stemmed, DBH calculated as a whole.                                             | 40+ Years                    | C2                          |
| 5T      | Horse ChestnutAesculus hippocastanum     | Semi-mature  | 8m     | 200mm;220mm  | N - 3mE - 3mS - 3mW - 3m         | N - 3m             | Good       | Good          | 41m²  | 3.6m   | Limited visual assessment due to the hedge. Tree is growing outside of site on the east side of the fence and was assessed from within. Growing on a 0.5m level change. One dead stem 1m from the base. Minor pruning. Canker present on one stem.                      | 40+ Years                    | C1                          |
| 6H      | Common HawthornCrataegus monogyna        | Semi-mature  | 0.5m   | 50mm             | N - 0.5mE - 0.5mS - 0.5mW - 0.5m | N - 0m             | Good       | Good          | 3m²   | 0.9m   | Regularly maintained hawthorn hedge outside of site and assessed from within. Multi stemmed, DBH estimated as a whole.                                                                                                                                                  | 20+ Years                    | C1                          |

| Ref No. | Common Name(Scientific Name)   | Age Class    | Height | Stem Diameter                            | Crown Spread                                 | Crown Clearance | Condition  |               | RPA               |        | Comments                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | Remaining Life Expectancy | Category / Sub-category |
|---------|------------------------------------|--------------|--------|------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------|-----------------|------------|---------------|-------------------|--------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------|-------------------------|
|         |                                    |              |        |                                          |                                              |                 | Structural | Physiological | Area              | Radius |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                           |                         |
| 7G      | Mixed group                        | Semi-mature  | 12m    | 200mm                                    | N - 2.5mE - 2.5mS - 2.5mW - 2.5m | N - 0m          | Good       | Good          | 18m <sup>2</sup>  | 2.4m   | An orchard of cherry, apple, and beech trees. Dimensions represent the maximum for the group. Some trees are multi stemmed from the base. Some have old tree guards on them.                                                                                              | 20+ Years                 | C2                      |
| 8G      | Mixed group                        | Semi-mature  | 12m    | 200mm                                    | N - 1.5mE - 1.5mS - 1.5mW - 1.5m | N - 0m          | Good       | Good          | 18m <sup>2</sup>  | 2.4m   | A mixed group of hawthorn, elder, and holly. The group is outside of the site and assessed from within. Dimensions represent the maximum for the group. Growing on a downwards slope that then inclines again. Several are multi stemmed. Small amount of ivy intermixed. | 40+ Years                 | C2                      |
| 9T      | Common OakQuercus robur | Early-mature | 20m    | 650mm                                    | N - 7mE - 7mS - 7mW - 7m         | N - 6m          | Good       | Good          | 191m <sup>2</sup> | 7.8m   | Fence and fencing wire have perforated the tree in several places. Previously crown lifted. Small amount of ivy. Prominent buttress roots. The tree is outside of the site and was assessed from within. The tree is growing at the top of a slope.                       | 20+ Years                 | B2                      |
| 10T     | Unknown                            | Early-mature | 11m    | 500mm                                    | N - 0mE - 0mS - 0mW - 0m         | N - 0m          | Dead       | Dead          | 113m <sup>2</sup> | 6m     | Dead tree outside of site assessed from within. Limited visual assessment due to hedge.                                                                                                                                                                                   | <10 Years                 | U                       |
| 11T     | Unknown                            | Early-mature | 11m    | 500mm                                    | N - 0mE - 0mS - 0mW - 0m         | N - 0m          | Dead       | Dead          | 113m <sup>2</sup> | 6m     | Dead tree outside of site assessed from within. Limited visual assessment due to hedge.                                                                                                                                                                                   | <10 Years                 | U                       |
| 12G     | Mixed group                        | Semi-mature  | 10m    | 100mm                                    | N - 1mE - 1mS - 1mW - 1m         | N - 0m          | Good       | Good          | 5m <sup>2</sup>   | 1.2m   | A mixed group of laurel, holly, cherry, and hawthorn. Growing at the top of the slope. Dimensions represent the maximum for the group. Several are multistemmed.                                                                                                          | 20+ Years                 | C1                      |
| 13T     | Goat WillowSalix caprea | Young        | 9m     | 60mm;60mm;40mm;40mm          | N - 0.5mE - 0.5mS - 0.5mW - 0.5m | N - 0.5m        | Good       | Good          | 5m <sup>2</sup>   | 1.2m   | Growing on an easterly slope. Multi stemmed from the base. Some cankers observed.                                                                                                                                                                                         | 40+ Years                 | C1                      |
| 14T     | Goat WillowSalix caprea | Young        | 7m     | 60mm;60mm;50mm;50mm;40mm | N - 1mE - 1mS - 1mW - 1m         | N - 0m          | Good       | Good          | 7m <sup>2</sup>   | 1.5m   | Multi stemmed from the base. Minor blackberry growing through the crown. No other notable features.                                                                                                                                                                       | 40+ Years                 | C1                      |