Comments: It would seem that permission has been granted for the extension at the rear of the house my confusion arises because Mrs Jane Curley advises that planning permission must be sought for the pitched roof on the garage is she referring to the latest drawings which shows a full pitched roof or is it the original drawings which show a small roof at the front. If it is the latest drawings I will object strongly with the huge shed recently built in their garden it will overpower our rear patio area. So definitely no to a full pitched roof. Colin Macdonald
