Determined on: 17/09/2014

Town and Country Planning Act 1990
Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure)(England) Order 2010

REFUSAL OF PLANNING PERMISSION

Location of Development:

Fair View Eaves Lane Armshead Staffordshire ST2 8NA

Description of Development:

Demolition of existing dwelling & outhouse with replacement dwelling

Staffordshire Moorlands District Council in pursuance of powers under the above mentioned Act hereby REFUSE to permit the development described above in accordance with plans ref: 103_P-001, 103_P-002, 103_P-003, 103_P-004, 103_P-005, 103_P-006, 103_P-007, for the reason(s) specified below:-

1.The proposed development would be inappropriate development in the Green Belt and there are no considerations that clearly outweigh the harm to the Green Belt and thereby no very special circumstances apply which warrant approval of the proposal. The proposal is therefore in conflict with the NPPF and Policy R1 of the Staffordshire Moorlands Core Strategy.

2.The design and scale of the proposal, in particular the presence of the dormer windows, is out of character with the design and scale of dwellings in the area and thereby in conflict with the NPPF and Policy DC1 of the Staffordshire Moorlands Core Strategy.

Informatives

1.It is considered that the proposals are unsustainable and do not conform with the provisions of the NPPF.

Signed on behalf of Staffordshire Moorlands District Council

NOTES

1. If you are aggrieved by the decision of your local planning authority to refuse permission for the proposed development or to grant it subject to conditions, then you can appeal to the Secretary of State under section 78 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.
2. If the decision to refuse planning permission is for a householder application, and you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision then you must do so within 12 weeks of the date of this notice. All other types of development have a 6 month deadline for submission of appeals. Appeals must be made using a form which you can get from the Planning Inspectorate at Temple Quay House, 2 The Square, Temple Quay, Bristol BS1 6PN or online at www.planningportal.gov.uk/pcs. The Secretary of State can allow a longer period for giving notice of an appeal, but he will not normally be prepared to use this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal. The Secretary of State need not consider an appeal if it seems to him that the local planning authority could not have granted planning permission for the proposed development or could not have granted it without the conditions they imposed, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of any development order and to any directions given under a development order. In practice, the Secretary of State does not refuse to consider appeals solely because the local planning authority based their decision on a direction given by him.
3. If either the local planning authority or the Secretary of State refuses permission to develop land or grants it subject to conditions, the owner may claim that he can neither put the land to a reasonably beneficial use in its existing state nor render the land capable of a reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been or would be permitted. In these circumstances, the owner may serve a purchase notice on the Council (District Council, London Borough Council or Common Council of the City of London) in whose area the land is situated. This notice will require the Council to purchase his interest in the land in accordance with the provisions of Part VI of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.
